GAME REPORT

During today's water polo match at the European Universities Water Polo Championship in Vukovar, it came to the Technical Delegate's attention that the player wearing cap number 7 for the Eszterhazy Karoly Catholic University team was not the registered athlete Zsombor Bogos, but an unregistered player without accreditation.

As a result, the SCAC has decided to impose the following sanctions:

- The player who participated in cap number 7, Noel David, is disqualified from taking part in the remaining matches of the tournament.
- The head coach of the Eszterhazy Karoly Catholic University team, Peter Toth, is suspended for the next match.
- The official result of the match is recorded as a 5:0, victory for the Hungarian University of Agriculture and Life Sciences.

Sincerely,

Milan Zvan
